SSA makes every effort to ensure that its members benefit from double taxation agreements, which allow a reduction in withholding tax in the country of work usage. Nevertheless, the undersigned takes note that if his/her tax domicile is outside Switzerland, arrears of withholding tax for non-Swiss residents may be claimed from SSA.

In such a case, the undersigned undertakes to reimburse to SSA the amounts of the said back taxes that the SSA may have to pay, including retroactively and in all cases, to its foreign partner societies following proceedings initiated by the local tax authorities.

This reimbursement may take the form of a set-off against current or future remunerations that SSA would have to pay to the undersigned, or a single payment or a payment in instalments as agreed.

The undersigned shall bear all the consequences of any erroneous, incomplete or late notification of his/her tax domicile to the SSA.

I/We confirm that the above statements are true and complete.

Place and date: Signature:

Please inform SSA of any official change of residence within one month.

Please return this form to SSA, "Members' Department", enclosing a copy of one of your identity documents (passport, identity card, certificate of domicile) / an extract from the commercial register.
